Terms & Conditions

- Memberships are held in the name of the business/firm.
- One person (designated member) represents the firm, is entitled to one vote, enjoys discounted rates on certain programs, receives all mailings and may participate on committees.
- The annual dues paid by each member include a subscription to the Chamber's monthly news magazine, The Business Voice.
- All memberships shall be continuous unless cancelled (A) in writing by the member, (B) by the Chamber for non-payment of dues, or (C) for non-compliance with Chamber policies.
- Membership dues investment is non-refundable.
- Membership plaques are the property of the Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce and are required to be returned if membership is cancelled for any reason.
- Membership in the Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce may be revoked according to the terms set forth in its bylaws.
- IRC section 6033 (e)(1)(A): requires exempt organizations that pay / incur non-deductible lobbying expenses to notify members of its reasonable estimate of the portion of the dues allocated to non-deductible lobbying expenses. Accordingly, 10% of your dues investment is considered allocable to lobbying expenses and is not deductible for federal income tax purposes. 90% of your dues investment usually is tax deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense. *
- The Chamber may send communications to the organizational e-mail, personal e-mail and fax number provided to keep you updated on urgent business issues, recent referrals and referral summaries, Chamber events and Chamber programs.
- By providing e-mail addresses and a fax number, you are stating you are authorized to and hereby consent for the company/organization to receive faxes and/or e-mails sent by or on behalf of the Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce.
- If a member's dues shall become delinquent for a period of thirty (30) days, the delinquent member may no longer be in good standing and shall forfeit the right to vote and a notice of delinquency shall be given to the delinquent member. If delinquent dues are not brought current within ten (10) days after a notice of delinquency, membership may be terminated by designated Chamber administrative staff.
- Any member wishing to indicate on his/her business web site that he/she is a member of the Chamber shall do so only with the consent of the Chamber and in a form approved by the Chamber.
- Dues are for a period of one year from date of inception.
- Employee counts are reviewed annually and dues are adjusted up or down based on employee count at time of renewal.
- Proud Member logos are for member use only and must be dropped from all materials upon termination of membership for any reason.
- Membership is not a guarantee of health coverage in the Chamber Health Plan.
- Membership is not contingent upon approval of any business for the Chamber Insurance program.
- Membership dues will not be refunded if member does not elect or secure insurance through the Chamber Health Plan for any reason.

*Your optional BIZPAC contribution is NOT tax deductible as an ordinary business expense.
